

U. S. TO DECLARE EMBARGO ON ARMS TO MEXICO?

WARSAW RESUMES A NORMAL ASPECT

London, August 3.—The armies of Germany and Austria-Hungary are being held by the Russians to the west of Warsaw, but they are making progress elsewhere on the Eastern front, according to the official statements emanating from Berlin and Vienna, their most determined attack made, that directed against Wyzkow, a town 35 miles northeast of Warsaw.

Pursuing their policy of cutting the communications of Grand Duke Nicholas, heavy German forces are attacking the railroad linking the main Warsaw-Petrograd line with Ostrolenka. The latest dispatch from Warsaw coming from a correspondent of the Associated Press and dated July 31, shows that conditions are much better than were indicated in the last direct dispatches to the London newspapers. The correspondent asserts that the people are returning to their homes and life in the capital is resuming a normal aspect although the official establishments have made all preparations for the expected evacuation, the French and Belgian consulates being placed in the hands of the American consul.

In the West fighting is again in progress on the British section of the battle front and there has been a resumption of infantry activity with the French admitting that the Germans have captured some trenches in the Argonne and the Marie Theresa district, but claiming that counter-attacks have re-won a portion of the lost ground.

In the Vosges mountains French troops have taken several German trenches after inflicting heavy losses on the defenders.

The record of the British activity given out by the British admiralty last night was supplemented today by a Petrograd official report which announced that an English submarine has sunk a large German transport in the Baltic.

He leaves for Panama soon and will make his headquarters there until the exposition is over.

SCIOTO REACHES 13 FOOT STAGE

Columbus, Aug. 3.—The Scioto river here reached the 13-foot stage this morning at 8 o'clock after a rapid rise last night caused by a 3-inch rainfall. North of the city and near Delaware the Olentangy river overflowed at several places. At Stratford three miles south of Delaware the flood waters washed out ballast from the Columbus Delaware and Marion Railway tracks and did much damage to crops. The waters of the Scioto began to recede soon after 8 o'clock.

Several persons who witnessed the downpour of rain at Stratford said it resembled a cloudburst. In addition to the damage done to tracks of the traction company at Stratford the power house was put out of commission for a time. As a result many people were unable to reach their homes last night. Service was resumed in a normal fashion this morning after much hard work by repair crews. A number of homes are reported flooded at Worthington, north of Columbus and crops have suffered heavy damage.

Although all officials surround the conference with greatest secrecy, and Secretary Lansing said today that possibly no announcement might be made afterward it is known that one of the first attempts is an embargo on arms to Mexico. Central and South America and Cuba as well will be asked to close their ports to war materials which provide the means for factional leaders in Mexico to continue their campaigns.

The president is not committed to details of any plan but will invite suggestion from the Latin America diplomats to open the way to a common ground. An announcement of the conference surprised agents of the Mexican factions here. Carranza's agents hopeful that his course within the last few weeks, and his efforts to respond to demands of this government to

SOME FOLKS BENT GOT NO SENSE OF HUMOR

One o' th' queer stunts in th' papers nowadays is th' news dispatches about th' special Board of Inquiry of this or that one of th' nations at war findin' th' enemy guilty of barbarism. When a fellow is his own judge, prosecutor, star witness and jury there ain't gonna be any doubt about th' verdict. Th' Hammer Club had t' invest in a new shingle t' keep weather records on. On the contrary, it was stated the Red Cross will continue to send supplies to the European Red Cross organization and will aid them by contributions of funds.

JUDGE LINDSEY IS CONVICTED

Denver, Colo., August 3.—Judge Ben B. Lindsey, of the Denver juvenile court, was found guilty of contempt of court today by District Judge John A. Perry. Sentence was deferred pending Judge Lindsey's return from the east.

The contempt case, resulted from the juvenile court judge's refusal to reveal on the witness stand what he claimed was a confidential conversation with Neal Wright, 12, whose testimony in criminal court had much to do with the acquittal of his mother, Mrs. Bertha Wright, charged with the murder of her husband.

John A. Wright was shot while seeking to gain entrance to his home here on April 18. Mrs. Wright was charged with the killing. Neal Wright testified at the trial that he, not his mother, fired the fatal shot and that it was accidental. The district attorney claimed that Neal previously had told a different story to Judge Lindsey and called Lindsey as a witness. The juvenile judge declared the boy's confidential communication and privileged and refused to testify. Mrs. Wright was acquitted June 10. In the meantime, Judge Lindsey had been cited for contempt.

Washington, August 3.—Time for the publication of the three notes from Great Britain and one from Germany, all dealing with the commercial rights of neutral nations in war time, was being arranged today. The British notes probably will be given out late today for publication tomorrow morning and the German note Thursday morning.

The first British note defends the order-in-council; the second justifies the Allies' efforts to cut off Germany's export trade, and the third defends prize court proceedings. The German note continues the discussion of the sinking of the American ship William P. Frye, and is said to justify Germany's course in sinking merchant ships, provided she pays for them.

The United States shortly will reply to the British notes, but it is not known what course will be pursued regarding the German note.

Pests I Have Met

No. 5--The Moving Picture Megaphone

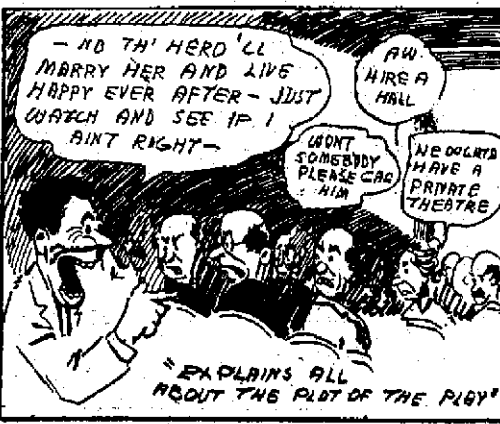

You are sitting peacefully in a moving picture theatre. You came in there to see the picture. If you had wanted to see and hear a play you would not have selected a moving picture show, but would have gone either to a vaudeville or drama house.

You have gone there because you want a rest from the day's labor perhaps. At any rate, you don't want any noise. That's one blessing about moving picture shows, but if the supply of Human Moving Picture Megaphones increase this delight will be completely eliminated.

These pests do not realize that if the managers of the movies wanted someone there to read the subject of the pictures, to give a synopsis of the play and several other little things, they would have a man there for that purpose.

As I said before, you are enjoying thoroughly the play when suddenly someone behind you begins to explain the plot of the play. Perhaps he or she has seen it, or heard of it, or perhaps their marvelous brain enables them to look ahead and figure out precisely what the picture will be.

One scene is finished. A subtitle is flashed on the screen. That pest behind you evidently thinks that he or she is the only person in the particular section of the house who can read English, so said pest proceeds to read ALOUD every word of this sub-title, and comment on same. Invariably when one scene is finished they have numerous suggestions to offer which they think would improve the film. Instead of taking these suggestions to some pro-

TAX DUPLICATE WILL BE OVER $55,000,000

The Scioto County 1915 tax duplicate, not including the public utilities, aggregates $45,040,950, a net gain of $27,330 over last year, according to the official figures given out Tuesday at the office of District Assessor F. B. M. Conson.

where the work was completed Tuesday morning. It is thought that the public utilities will be about the same as last year, $10,615,000, which would swell the tax duplicate to over $55,000,000.

A gain of $472,970 was shown in the real estate over the whole county, the figures being $34,564,590 for this year as against $33,891,620 in 1914. The personal property shows a loss of $145,840, the amount in 1915 being $10,476,260, as against $10,622,100 in 1914.

OVER A WEEK OF PUMPING NEARLY DRAINS COFFER DAM

A few more hours of constant pumping, started a week ago, is expected to completely drain the big coffer dam at the government dam, four miles below the city.

The pumps, which were in the water a week ago, were high and dry Sunday and several big streams of water from as many big mains were slowly but surely diminishing the pond within the big enclosure; the steam power being supplied from a boiler boat moored alongside the dam. At one end a force of men was busy making preparations to lower a hoist engine preliminary to resuming work of excavating for the concrete path through the center of the coffer dam, and in which the wickets will be set. A layer of concrete has been spread over the top of the coffer-dam wall which is fully ten feet wide, affording an excellent promenade for visitors. The coffer dam extends to beyond the middle of the river, and once the concrete wicket path is completed the coffer dam will be torn out and another built on the Ohio side to permit of the construction of a "bear trap." The concrete work of the lock wall is completed and is an imposing looking affair of sufficient width to permit the easy passage of the largest of Ohio river towboats, with twelve coal barges lashed to abreast. A dredge boat is working at the upper end clearing the channel. Another is dumping tons of dirt and gravel from the bottom of the river against the coffer-dam side walls to protect them against washing. Dredge-boats, concrete mixing boats, sand-diggers and a whole fleet of other equipment in action give the dam a very busy appearance. The Sheridan-Kirk Contract company has its own towboat and everything moored with clock-like precision. Offices, commissary, material sheds and shanties are located on the top of the high Kentucky embankment. Men engaged on the big job work every day of the week in eight hour shifts. High water and rains have delayed the work considerably, but the big undertaking is now well under way and it is certainly worth one's time to view the progress that has been made to date.

Mayor Urges All To Unite For Best Possible Hospital

To the Public:

By way of assisting the present management at Hempstead hospital, I am prompted to say: That the public should be enlightened as to the allegations published and flaunted before the citizens to the effect that this institution had, by its former management, been neglected or so desecrated as to almost totally unfit it for the care of those unfortunately who must, and shall, receive the best of attention from the equipment and employees, maintained, partially at the expense of the public, who possibly expect it to be self sustaining through the receipts from the pay patients.

The damage done this institution has been far reaching, and I believe the cause ought to be well understood, especially by all that want to be fair. It may be that anything that I might say by way of referring thereto would neither repair the loss, nor tend to eliminate the animosity so existing. But, inasmuch as the liability is apparent, there is a call to duty, and it must then be the purpose of this communication to advise that while the assault has been made, there has been no justification for it, and that the institution is open to the public, that we hope the people will avail themselves of the opportunity of personal inspection, by which means the real facts may be determined; and that they may later add their approval by way of fearlessly proclaiming the service that is found there and available to all.

The director, Mr. John Linck, has endeavored to, and has secured the best possible successor to the present superintendent, Miss Lowe, in the person of Miss Strong, at present engaged at Christ hospital, Cincinnati, Ohio, who, however, cannot assume the duties at Hempstead hospital prior to September 5, 1915. Miss Lowe, the present superintendent cannot, by reason of assuming her new duties with a very large indemnity company at Cincinnati, Ohio, remain longer than August 15, 1915. The intervening time must be provided for through securing such substitutes as are available for temporary service. This arrangement we hope to effect with Miss Lynn, a former associate with Miss Lowe and others, now engaged, professionally, in private practice in this city. Miss Strong, while not instantly obtainable, comes to us very highly recommended by the best citizens of this city, who have had occasion to be present at the Cincinnati institution, and who have carefully noticed the care of her patients. This we deem of sufficient import as to justify awaiting and providing for the many changes that must be made during the time she may arrange to take up her duties here, and thus secure as the successor of the present superintendent one competent among the applicants.

I trust that none that are called upon to accept treatment at any hospital will be apprehensive of the care and attention that will be given them here, and to those who are at a distance, and who would otherwise come here, I assure the same close, personal attention that may be had from any other similar institution, that they need have no misgivings that the service from the hospital or the professional men in this city is other than the best that may be obtained anywhere. And it must be remembered that to the extent of patronage and good will, from any whose opinions are worth having, depends the continuation and improvement of service, making it possible to keep well in advance of present day needs. With reference to our city hospital, this, I hope, will, hereafter, be the rule rather than the exception. By way of doing justice to an institution so necessary to care for public emergencies, husbanding life, and properly safeguarding the resources provided therefor by our citizens, let all be willing to help rather than show a disposition to retard its progress.

Respectfully submitted,
July 24, 1915. MAYOR.

Takes Agency
Walter Eghert, of Lucasville, son of County Commissioner Daniel Eghert, has taken the agency for the Holliver Eight-Cylinder automobile. His territory embraces Scioto, Adams, Pike and Lawrence counties.

"Viola Dana" in
"On Dangerous Paths"
At Lyric Theatre
"On Dangerous Paths" in four acts, is something bigger in theme and far above the usual run of pictures.

In these days of trite and outworn unthrilling "thrillers" comes this genuinely wholesome feature as a cool breeze from the country fields on a hot day.

The sweet and trusting country girl, adrift on treacherous currents, in city life, is eminently suited to the charming unaffectedness and winning brilliant impersonations of the little star, Viola Dana. As in "The Storing," she is again the petite, self-willed little girl of the country side—the girl genius whom exhibitors have clamored for since she stirred the country in "The Storing." Directed by John H. Collins whose skill has directed many of Edison features to unusual success.

Tomorrow is "Metro Day" and the big attraction will be the beautiful star Valli Valli who will be remembered as the star in "The Chocolate Soldier" and enjoys the reputation of being one of the youngest and most versatile of the present day American actresses, in "The High Road" a five part masterpiece replete with thrills and powerful climaxes, "The High Road" is a production of great interest and is sure to please and impress every lover of a good dramatic picture.

Mary Pickford
In "The Dawn of a Tomorrow"
Columbia Tonight

Mary Pickford, the idolized star of the Famous Players Film company, adds another striking characterization to her notable repertoire of screen successes in Frances Hodgson Burnett's great drama of optimism, "The Dawn of a Tomorrow," the world-famous story of a young girl's unflinching faith and triumphant ultimate reward. In this celebrated play that gladdened the hearts of so many and the screen version of which will cheer as many thousands more, Mary Pickford portrays the weird and wonderful character of Glad, the beautiful and ragged girl of the London slums, whose unyielding optimism and heroic courage, even starvation and deadly peril are unable to quench. The delicacy of Miss Pickford's portrayal and the threads of forceful symbolism woven about the drama will make an unforgettable impression on the spectator. How the ignorant little slum-girl, by her beautiful faith in the mysterious Power she but vaguely comprehends, is enabled to save her lover's life from the gallows, keep a great financier from suicide, bringing him a new hope and meaning of life, and awaken his reprobate nephew to a better manhood, are vividly told in this sublime drama of human suffering and hope that has brought to many despairing souls a new inspiration to bear the trials of today in the expectancy of tomorrow's dawn.

Be sure and see this interesting "Mary Pickford" picture at the Columbia today, and try and come this afternoon and miss the big crowd this evening, as the price of admission is 10 cents. "Little Mary" will hold abiding reception.

The first evening show will begin at 6:30.
Be sure and come early.

Charley Chaplin At the Arcana Theatre Tonight

Manager Potts will in addition to the Chaplin picture show the second episode of Prince Hassan, entitled "The Cage of the Golden Bar." This serial has given splendid satisfaction and is regarded as one of the best serials ever produced. Those who missed the first episode will have the same explained today. Then Manager Potts will bring his great program to an end by showing a Joker comedy entitled "How Billy Got His Raise." Max Asher, who is regarded by many as the equal to Charlie Chaplin, will star in this production. Remember all of this big program for the smallest admission of 5 cents. Come to the Arcana tonight and see one of the greatest programs ever offered in the city.

At The Exhibit
"The Old High Chair" is the title of a two reel dramatic feature that is being offered as the headliner at the Exhibit tonight. It is one of those heart interest stories that all are pleased to see. There is a pretty plot running all the way through the picture. Nan Christy, Beatrice Van, Harry Von Meter and Robin Adair are playing the leading roles in a single reel drama entitled "A Woman Scorned." This single reel picture is an exceptionally strong one and there is a great deal of pathos and heart interest in it all the way through.

Wednesday's feature is a two-reel Keystone comedy entitled "Court House Crooks" with Ford Sterling in the leading role.

So Temple Theatre
"Hearts and Swords" is the title of a thrilling romance of the Mexican conflict in two parts at the Temple theatre tonight. The third reel is entitled when "The House is Divided." The fourth reel is our mutual weekly. Wednesday, August 4th, is another series of the "Exploits of Elaine" entitled "The Opium Smugglers." It is a real romance. Stirring adventure, sterling courage, love, romance and intrigue, march together through each exciting episode.

His young rival tries to help but is rejected by the daughter. He waits patiently and in the end meets his reward. The third reel "Should We Eat Pie" is a Power's comedy, presenting the famous monkey, "Alexander the Great." The fourth reel features Mary Pickford and King Baggot in a charming drama, called "In the Sultan's Garden."

THE PLAIN TRUTH

The Republican party of Portsmouth is getting into a sad muddle. There is no question of principle involved; just a personal strife among would-be leaders who should have been but were not big enough to sink personal animosities and ambitions for the good of the party.

On the one hand is Mr. McCormick, backed by Bannon, McElhaney and Ditty. This faction claims to be the special representative of Governor Willis and to hold the plums in the hollow of its hand. The nomination of McCormick is a secondary consideration with this faction, the main object is to assure the domination of Mr. Bannon as the director of Scioto County Republicanism.

On the other hand is Mr. Kaps, backed by Hard, Eckhart and others, who feel that they have a grievance against Governor Willis and Mr. Bannon. The primary purpose of this faction is not the nomination of Kaps, but the humiliation of Willis and Bannon.

Thus we have Ambition on one side and Revenge upon the other, and the Republican party is asked to pay the bill.

The Republican party of Portsmouth is asked to be the Belgium in this struggle between the "Emperor" and the "Allies."

Leaders of both sides of this unfortunate struggle concede several things:

First: That the nomination of either McCormick or Kaps will but widen the breach and will not make for party harmony.

Second: That the nomination of Osborn would be a victory for neither faction, and that both could join in his support without humiliation.

Third: That Osborn would make the best candidate and would be elected by a large majority.

Fourth: That Osborn is the best qualified man now before the people for the office of Mayor.

We are not appealing to the leaders at this time; the bitterness has possibly gone too far for either side to yield; but we do appeal to the every-day Republicans—the men who are not seeking power or place, but who are anxious for Republican victories now and in 1916; who are worried over the dilemma into which this unseemly strife is leading the party; who want the best candidate named, and who wish the next Republican city administration to be strong and capable. Upon these Republicans we urge that in this difficult situation which confronts the Republican party of Portsmouth.

William P. Scott, who has been head salesman for Will J. Friel, a local automobile dealer, has resigned his position with Mr. Friel to take the salesmanship with the new firm composed of Messrs. Lafayette, John and Volney Taylor, all of Rarden. The new firm will seek headquarters in this city and will push the sale of the popular Ford car. Mr. Scott has had much practical experience in the construction of the Ford car at the Detroit plant and knows the finer points of the machine. He has been employed as salesman by Mr. Friel for the past several years.

Mr. Friel stated Tuesday that he would retain the agencies of the Chalmers, Dodge and Studebaker cars.

Messrs. Taylor have held the agency for the Ford for several townships about Rarden for over a year.

Great Films Coming To Local Theatres

A contract that will place the Columbia and Lyric Theatres in a position to present the world's greatest film productions to the devotees of the silent drama, has just been closed by the management of these houses.

This contract calls for the presentation of a series of wonderful film plays made by the greatest of all producers—Vita-graph-Lubin-Selig-Essanay on what is known as the V. L. S. E. or the "Big Four" program. These productions represent the greatest achievements of the four great pioneer producing companies, a collection of pictures that sets a new, high standard of excellence in the art of photodramatic work.

All of the plays are stupendous productions, adapted from famous stage successes, and the great popular works of fiction. Nothing to compare with them have ever been shown in Portsmouth.

It is stated that none of these productions cost less than $30,000 to produce. Photographically and dramatically, they are film masterpieces. Several of them have played in the big cities at $100 and $200 admissions.

It will be recalled that most of the screen picture play stars are members of one or the other of the producing companies contributing to the V. L. S. E. program. In addition to this, many of the best motion picture artists of the speaking stage will be seen in these film masterpieces.

A fair idea of the dramatic range of the V. L. S. E. features may be gained from the following list:

of plays: "Eagle's Nest," "The Juggernaut," "Graustark," "The Carpet from Bagdad," "The College Widow," "The Island of Regeneration," "The Slim Princess," "The Millionaire Baby," "Hearts and the Highway," "The Sporting Duchess," "Sins of the Mothers," "The White Sister," "The Rosary," "The District Attorney," "Crook," "The Blindness of Virtue," "A Texas Steer," "The Climbers," "The Chalice of Courage," "A Bunch of Keys," "The House of a Thousand Candles," "Tillie's Tomato Surprise," "Mortmain," "The Man Trail," "The Circular Staircase," "The Great Ruby," "Dust of Egypt," "In the Palace of the King," "A Black Sheep," "The Great Divide," "The Writing on the Wall," and "The Ne-er-do-Well."

Going On Vacation

Rev. Charles R. Oakley, minister of the First Christian church, began his month's vacation Monday morning. Rev. Oakley has not as yet decided upon just where he will spend his vacation, but he states that when he does decide no one but his family will know concerning his whereabouts. When he takes his vacation, he says, he goes away for absolute rest and quiet.

COMPANY K IS HOME

Company K arrived home from Yellow Springs on an N. & W. special train Monday afternoon. The boys looking like seasoned soldiers after their eight days' encampment. The trip was made without incident save for a fight in which "Bunk" Hodge tried to clean up with the entire cook detail only to get hooked up with First Sergeant Roy Moore. Moore gave him quite a beating, it is said, and then placed him under guard. Hodge escaped, but after some more struggling was overpowered and again placed under guard.

The Portsmouth company made quite a hit during the encampment, showing the efficiency of commands that have been in the service for years.

Not a Factional Candidate!

The Osborn Campaign Committee makes the charge that the two leading candidates for mayor are factional candidates only. Therefore, says the ingenious Osborn ad-writer, we insist that everybody become so immediately, so seriously and so terribly alarmed that votes be cast for Osborn. And, of course, that was the sole and only object in writing the piece.

But is the Osborn camp itself free from factionalists? Well, hardly. In its front ranks we see men like Wells Hutchins, Pearl Selby, Harry W. Miller, et al., excellent Republicans and splendid citizens, but all extreme factionalists just the same, as everyone knows.

Other candidates can speak, and no doubt will, speak for themselves but the Kaps candidacy was not and is not a factional candidacy. It had its origin among hundreds of personal friends of Bert Kaps, among the plain, common people, if you please, among men of all factions and of no factions. Among the hundreds of names not quoted in the campaign advertisement referred to, are the bones and sinews of the Kaps support, and they are men free from factional affiliations.

If Mr. Kaps becomes mayor of Portsmouth he could not be a factional mayor, if he wanted to, which he does not, for he has too many friends in every place to make it necessary for him to recognize friends in one place only. He would be mayor of the whole party because he has support from the whole party.

SKIFF, CLOTHING, WATCH AND AUTO TOOLS STOLEN

It was the old, old story of going home in a barrel for Ralph Tyson and party of friends Sunday night. With a skiff hired from the wharfboat they rowed down the Ohio on the Kentucky shore opposite the infirmary and tied the boat in the willows leaving clothes and valuable in the boat. After cavorting around on a sandbar, and in the water nearby they returned to the boat but it had disappeared along with clothes, etc. Tyson in his bathing suit walked to the dam several miles below the city but said boat had not drifted there. He walked back. The rest of the party shivering waited for him. One of them crossed the river and got into an auto waiting for them at Second and Market streets and hastened home for clothes. Returning he left the auto near the willows on the west side. While he was gone someone stole the tools out of the auto. The party reached home at five o'clock Monday morning. Tyson lost a gold watch, fraternity pin and fob and some money while other members of the party also suffered losses—not to mention their clothes.

The contests were exciting, and attracted much interest. The finals will be played Wednesday.

"The Good Fellowship of A Good Watch"

There is something in the good fellowship of a good watch that is always felt by the owner; that is, in words, hard to define. Ask your friend who has a good watch—a watch that keeps perfect time—how much he will take for it and he will laugh at you. It is because there is that attachment to it—that knowledge of its faithfulness that places it above its actual intrinsic value. These are the kind of watches we sell, and only these kind that you become attached to. From $10 up.

NEW YORK STOCKS

New York, August 3.—Vigorous buying was begun at the opening today in industrial stocks which have been the favorite in the recent extended rise. Speculation tended once more to the concentration of the war shares and the movement was less comprehensive than on yesterday's rise.

Bethlehem Steel jumped 12 points and Crucible Steel five. Alis Chalmers rose 2 1/2 to 37 1/2, a new high record and United States Steel touched 65 1/2, the best figure of the year. Republic Steel, Railway Steel, Springs, Baldwin Locomotive, Colorado Fuel and Westinghouse Electric advanced 1 to 2 points. There was heavy buying of the oil stocks. Mexican Petroleum and California Petroleum were marked up 2 1/2. Pacific Mail rose 4 1/2 on unconfirmed reports that the company's steamers would be purchased by International Mercantile Marine.

With the exception of Rock Island and Northern Pacific, which advanced a point each, the railways were quiet.

The rapid rise of the favorite industrials continued through the morning and gossip again ran to reports of new war orders and the financial gains of the companies concerned. Operators acted on the theory that the recent slump had proved a severe test for these shares and that their weaker following having been eliminated they might be expected to respond to renewed bullish efforts. Several new high records were established, with Bethlehem Steel returning to its previous best figure of 27 1/2, an overnight gain of 17 points. Dealings in the war stocks were heaviest but the demand for standard issues increased with advances of 1 to 2 points. Bonds were firm. International Mercantile Marine bonds jumped five points.

Late dealings were marked by a series of confused fluctuations due to profit taking and the bringing forward of new leaders. Oil stocks were buoyant. Crucible steel sold five points below the best. The closing was irregular.

Stocks were again conspicuously strong without any new influence. The breadth of buying disclosed a wide public demand, was absorbed sales of real stocks and pressure from bears speculators. Slow absorption by investments interest continued.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS

Chicago, Aug. 3.—After a hesitating start, wheat advanced today, influenced by reports from North Dakota that black rust was developing fast. At Fargo, where recently there had been no trace of rust a large area was said to be now badly affected. Lower quotations from Liverpool tended to weaken the market here at the outset and so too did prospects of clearing weather in the domestic winter crop belt. Opening prices, which ranged from 16 to 16 1/2 cents, were followed by a moderate ease above last night's level all around.

Corn buying was stimulated by a good shipping demand from the East and as a result of upturns in wheat. Country offerings were light. Prices opened 1/2 and 1/4 to 1/2 and 1/4 higher, and seemed inclined to hold at a point that range.

Excessive rain spoiling the harvest brought about decided higher values for oats. There were many complaints that the quality of shipments would be poor. Aggressive selling weakened provisions. Higher prices on hogs were ignored.

Weakness developed later owing to slowness of export inquiry and because of warmer temperatures.

The great secret of making successful real estate investments lies in buying in a line of certain future development.

SCIOTOVILLE is the hub around which the greatest industrial wheel between Pittsburgh and Cincinnati must be built. No real estate investments in Southern Ohio—regardless of location—can possibly compare as to genuine stability and certainty of profits with the few that are offered in HIGH and DRY Sciotoville. Its splendid geographical situation has brought, without the asking, transportation facilities for which neighboring cities begged on bended knees. Advantageous location coupled with its immunity from floods, natural drainage and resultant healthfulness has effected the substantial and wholesome growth of 150 per cent in the past two years, that has not been equalled by a single community in the Ohio Valley.

Don't miss this opportunity to acquire "a little place close to town" at "your own price." Watch this space for further announcements.

GRANDMA NEVER LET HER HAIR GET GRAY
Keep her locks youthful, dark, glossy and thick with common garden Sage and Sulphur.

When you darken your hair with Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so wisely. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is messy and troublesome. For 50 cents you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use tonic called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant. You will also discover dandruff is gone and hair has stopped falling. Gray, faded hair, though, no longer is a sign of old age; and in we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur and look young again.

Given Old Picture, It's Worth $50,000

Toledo, August 3.—Miss Dorsey Southard, society girl and daughter of Frank Southard, president of the Toledo Metal Wheel and Tool company while visiting friends in the East some time ago, was given as a remembrance a picture which she had found in the attic and for which she expressed admiration. She was told that the picture had been in the family 300 years.

Unaware that the picture was worth more than its surface beauty, Miss Southard had it expressed here. Upon its arrival it was given a place in the attic at the Southard home. A few days ago it was sent to an art shop to have its frame regilded. It was then that it was learned that the canvas was either a Van Dyke or Rubens and was worth probably $50,000.

Several art critics have viewed the canvas, among them Carlton Chapman, famous artist. It has been pronounced genuine by all and a value of $50,000 was placed upon it. Chester Hayes, a noted authority, is to examine the canvas shortly.

The picture, according to Miss Southard, was brought from England in 1600.

CITY BOARD INSPECTS ALL LAKE STEAMERS

Chicago, August 3.—A board named by the city council harbors committee today began preparations for tests of the stability of excursion steamships sailing out of the city of Chicago. This board is composed of W. J. Wood, naval architect; Henry A. Allen, William A. Nelson, Herbert H. Evans, Adam F. Winkler and F. H. Avery. Sand bags weighing as much as a full quota of passengers will be placed on one side of the steamship Christopher Columbus next Thursday as a means of ascertaining the seaworthiness of the vessel.

The federal grand jury today resumed the taking of evidence regarding the alleged "cranky" performances of the steamship Eastland, which capsized at its dock a week ago Saturday. It is declared that twelve or fifteen indictments are being drawn and will be completed within a week. Solicitation for funds for sufferers of the Eastland practically ceased today, from a statement made today by Mayor Thompson and the relief committee, that the sum given was sufficient to care for the needs of the relatives of the victims. It was announced that subscriptions now are in excess of $330,000 and that benefits to be given in the next few days will considerably increase that figure.

ST. LOUIS BANKER COMMITTS SUICIDE

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 3.—Franklin L. Johnson, assistant cashier of the Mercantile National Bank of St. Louis, committed suicide here by shooting himself in the head late last night. The body was found early today by a night watchman in an office of the bank. Festus J. Wade is president of the bank.

Johnson had been assistant cashier of the bank since its organization six years ago.

Hugh L. Powers, vice president, said Johnson had not been in good health recently.

EDITOR FAVORS WORKERS

CHOLERA TAKES 178

Paris, August 3.—In the week of July 12 to July 19 there were 366 cases of cholera and 178 deaths in Hungary, says a dispatch from Geneva to the Havas news agency.

America Must Pay For Belgian Goods

Washington, August 3.—Financial settlement through London is one of the conditions laid down by Great Britain in reply to American efforts to secure Belgian goods consigned to this country and now held at Rotterdam. The state department has represented unofficially that no benefit would accrue to Germany through this trade, but Great Britain apparently intends to see that the money paid by American importers goes to Belgians only.

Belgian goods will be released only when payment is made through London, Great Britain to forward the money to the Belgian shippers direct.

State department officials believe that American importers cannot comply with this condition as in many cases the goods held up at Rotterdam have already been paid for. Further negotiations will be undertaken to secure agreement as this class of traffic.

SAYS FRANCE WOULDN'T HAVE INVADIED BELGIUM

Paris, August 3.—The Belgian government has published a second gray book containing various documents relating to the war, notably a communication from Baron Guillaume, Belgian minister to Paris, to the Belgian minister of foreign affairs, dated February 22, 1913, apparently contradicting documents recently published by the Germans alleged to have been found in the state archives at Brussels and purported to have been written by Baron Guillaume.

Explaining to M. De Margerie, of the French foreign office, the meaning of the Belgian military law, M. Guillaume writes that he said:

"We wish to avoid, if possible, having Belgium again become as she too often has been, the battlefield of Europe—President Poincaré has assured me—France would never take the initiative to violate our neutrality. Our aim is solely to prevent to the limit of our forces the violation of our neutrality."

The second part of the gray book consists of protests and addresses by the Belgian government to the Austrian and German governments against alleged violations of war and The Hague conference.

ONE KILLED IN BOMB EXPLOSION

Philadelphia, August 3.—One man was killed and three others were seriously injured in an explosion today in the experimental bomb proof department of the United States arsenal in Frankford, this city.

The man killed was James Harkins, a civilian. The injured are M. Frusco and Arthur Lumleat, soldiers assigned to the ordinance department, and George Brown, a civilian.

The two soldiers are in a critical condition. Brown is not seriously hurt. It is understood that the experiments were being made with a high power explosive shell at the time of the explosion.

BARON IS KILLED

Rio de Janeiro, August 3.—Baron Alameda Werther, son-in-law of the late Baron de Rio Branco, Brazil's famous foreign minister, was killed last night while trying to gain possession of his children, who have been living with his former wife who obtained a divorce from him.

The divorce trial of Baron Werther, which began in September, 1913, resulted in sensational disclosures. The baroness declared that her husband seized important diplomatic documents belonging to the ministry of foreign affairs of Brazil and threatened her with death when she protested. Baron Werther, she asserted, had frequent interviews with Herr Michelles, then German minister to Brazil. She said also that her husband communicated to the Krupp and other German firms documents referring to the defense of Brazil.

About a year before the divorce proceedings were instituted Baron Werther was shot three times by his nephew Senhor Alcides Parana-hoe Silva, but his wounds were not serious. The shooting took place at the Baron's home in Petropolis. Senhor Silva declared he mistook his uncle for a burglar.

MAYOR HOPES TO AVERT STRIKE

New York, August 3.—Mayor Mitchell's council of conciliation was endeavoring today to formulate a plan which would prevent a strike of 60,000 members of the International Ladies' Garment Workers' Union. Nearly 40,000 members of the union have voted to strike unless their differences with the cloak, suit and skirt manufacturers' protective association are adjusted to their satisfaction. It was stated that in event of failure of police to move, the strike would begin tomorrow. The mayor's council hope to be able to submit a satisfactory peace plan today.

FRUIT GROWERS HIT
Philadelphia, August 3.—Fruit growers of Palestine stand to lose $30,000,000 because of the European war according to a letter received here from George Kint, general commissioner of commerce with headquarters at Jaffa and made public today.

German Americans To Oppose Prohibition?

San Francisco, August 3.—Opposition to national prohibition was expected to take some tangible form today in the shape of a definite program at the second day's business session of the national German-American alliance of the United States. Dr. C. G. Hexamer, of Philadelphia, president of the organization, stated that resolutions dealing with the subject of prohibition would occupy a prominent part of the convention which is to be concluded Saturday.

The report of Secretary Adolph Tish, of Philadelphia, recommending that prohibition be opposed was adopted yesterday and steps were taken by some of the 550 delegates to formulate a plan of action. It was indicated that the alliance was not opposed to prohibition in itself but that the methods of gaining it were not likely to stamp out the drink habit. Education, it was contended, was a better means.

Mr. Pettit spent his spare time reading law in the office of Frank B. Bayless, of West Union, and in 1878 he was admitted to the bar. He opened an office in West Union and practiced law successfully until the time of his death.

In 1880 he was elected as clerk of the court of common pleas of Adams county over Lucien J. Fenton, afterward congressman from the Tenth district, and in 1883 was elected for a second term of three years. He was also called at different times to fill positions of trust in his home town of West Union, having served as member of the board of education and other municipal offices. He also served two terms as member of the board of deputy supervisors of elections of Adams county.

In 1906 he was candidate on the Democratic ticket for judge of the common pleas court of this district against Judge A. Z. Blair, of this city, who was running for a second term, and made a most creditable showing.

His last important public office was as delegate to the Ohio Constitutional Convention at Columbus in 1912 from Adams county, having been elected over three formidable opponents. He served with honor and distinction throughout the entire session. Last fall he was a candidate for prosecuting attorney of Adams county on the Democratic ticket, but was defeated by a small majority.

Mr. Pettit was a staunch Democrat and was prominent in the councils of his party in his home county and in the district in which he lived. He frequently visited Portsmouth on professional and political errands and made a host of friends here, whom he retained until his death.

A nephew, Frank Leedom, is in charge of the lithographing department of the Koh-Patterson Company in this city.

Judge James S. Thomas, Judge A. Z. Blair and B. F. Kimble, intimate friends of the late Mr. Pettit, will attend the funeral services and it is thought that others from this city will be present.

Funeral services will be held at West Union Thursday afternoon at two o'clock, according to word received Tuesday afternoon by Frank Leedom, nephew of the deceased, who will attend the funeral. Mr. Pettit was a member of the Masonic Lodge, and the members of that order will have a part in the funeral services.

Matthew Cahill
Matthew Cahill, aged 86, one of the best known and prominent citizens of Chillicothe, died Sunday morning after a two weeks' illness and was buried Tuesday morning. He was the father of Mayor James A. Cahill, of Chillicothe, and of Mrs. Frank Marshall.

Other surviving children are Miss Gertrude, at home, Thomas F. and William J. Cahill, of Chillicothe, and Frank Cahill, of Parkersburg, W. Va. Mr. Cahill was known to older Portsmouth residents. He was most highly esteemed as a man of sterling character and high ideals.

Mrs. Mary Scherer Hauck
Mrs. P. G. Balmert, 1240 Ninth street, is in receipt of a letter from Miss Grace Hauck, of Huntington, W. Va., telling of the sudden death a few days ago of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Mary Scherer-Hauck, aged 40 years. She had been removed to a hospital for a surgical operation and died the same night. Mrs. Hauck was the wife of William Hauck, a traveling man and was well known in Portsmouth. Besides her husband she leaves five young children. The remains were removed to her former home in Ironton for burial.

OBITUARY

Edward J. Morgan
Funeral services over the body of the late Edward J. Morgan, of Glover street, who died at the Jewish hospital in Cincinnati Sunday evening, following an operation for the removal of gall stones, will be held at the Second Presbyterian church Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock. The services at the church will be in charge of Calvary Commandery, Knights Templar, of this city, of which Mr. Morgan was a member. The Sir Knights will assemble at the asylum in the Masonic Temple at 10 o'clock Thursday morning, and march in a body to the church, in full uniform. Rev. W. J. Zueck of the Second Presbyterian church and Rev. T. H. McAfee of the First Baptist church will assist in the services.

As a mark of respect to the memory of the man who contributed the best part of his life to the advancement of the firm, the Excelsior shoe factory will be closed down in all departments from 10 o'clock Thursday morning until one o'clock Thursday afternoon. Hundreds of the employees of the company, who had learned to admire the sterling character and integrity of Mr. Morgan, will join with the officials in paying their last tribute to his memory.

Mr. Morgan was a member of John Williams' Bible class of Second Presbyterian church. All members of the class, who can, are requested to meet at the church Wednesday at 11 o'clock to attend the funeral.

Mr. Morgan's death caused universal sorrow in the city, where he had become widely known through his activity in business, lodge and church circles. His immediate neighborhood is plunged in grief, for it was as a home man that his lovable traits of character were more clearly defined. He was a true Christian gentleman, one whose daily life advanced the faith which he espoused, and his loss will be deeply felt in the circles in which he moved.

George W. Pettit
Portsmouth and Scioto county joins today with Adams county in mourning for the loss of one of its most distinguished and beloved citizens, George W. Pettit, of West Union, who died at 8:30 o'clock Monday evening in a hospital at Amelia, Clermont county, where he was taken about two weeks ago for treatment for chronic kidney trouble. Especially do the members of the Scioto County Bar Association feel the loss of a valued friend and counselor.

George W. Pettit was born April 5, 1846, near Sunbunville, Adams county, the son of Isaac Pettit and Sarah Chambers. His early education was obtained in a log school house in Oliver township, in what is known as the Gulf district, although he was never permitted to attend school more than three months in one year. He was a self-educated man and worked himself by dint of hard study and perseverance, from a humble beginning to a position of power and prominence in the community in which he lived.

At the age of 19 he began teaching school at Mt. Tabor, Jefferson township, in 1870. From 1871 to 1874 he taught in the schools at Rome; in 1874-1875, at Concord, Ky.; 1875-76, at Rome; 1876-77 at Buena Vista, this county; 1877-78 at Rome.

On May 30, 1874, he was united in marriage to Laura A. Adamson, and to that happy union three children were born, Horace G., Ernest G., and Helen G. Pettit. Ernest G. Pettit died several years ago, but the other two, with the widow, survive him. His daughter nursed her father throughout his last illness, and was at his bedside when the end came.

WHOOPEE! KORN KARNIVAL WILL BE A HUMMER

Fraternal Parade Sure; Get Ready To "Eat On The Street"

OFFICIAL PROGRAM OF THE KORN KARNIVAL

Wednesday Evening—Karnival Boosters' Parade, Albert Marting, chairman.
Thursday Morning—Farmers Parade, Otto Zoellner, chairman.
Thursday Afternoon—Children's Parade, Si Straus, chairman.
Thursday Evening—Fraternal Parade, W. W. Anderson, chairman.
Friday Afternoon—Children's Choral, Prof. Frank Appel, chairman.
Friday Evening—"The Bill's Parade", W. H. Burt, chairman.
Saturday Afternoon—Old Fiddlers' Contest, Quartette Contest.
Saturday Evening—Mardi Gras Parade, F. W. Sheridan, chairman.
Two Mile Dinner—Thursday or Friday noon.

morning or afternoon, which ever is most convenient to the farmers.
To promote this feature, delegations of business men of this city will tour the county in automobiles this fall, visiting the various granges and making personal visits to the farmers themselves at their homes.
Among those who are sure to go are Dr. W. J. Keyes, J. A. Bode, and Prof. Frank Appel, although they will be accompanied each time by a large delegation.

J. A. Bode is an enthusiast of the most ardent type on the subject of fruits, while Dr. Keyes will give practical talks and demonstrations on spraying trees. The committee hopes to accomplish a great deal by personal visits and individual contact with the farmers.

"ADVERTISING DICK" ON THE JOB

Chairman E. W. Richards, of the advertising committee, reported that the automobile pennants had been ordered and would be delivered about August 15th. They will advertise the Korn Karnival all over Ohio, Kentucky, and West Virginia. The post cards, street banners, and advertising pennants have also been ordered and will be received in plenty of time. Mr. Richards submitted samples of advertising feathers, and was authorized to order one thousand of them, which will be taken on the boosting trips of the business men to neighboring fairs, granges and meetings.

The Fiddlers' contest will be held on Saturday, as usual, with $16 in prizes offered. The male quartette contest will take the place of the duet contest this year, and $16 will be offered as prizes.

BOY SCOUTS WILL HELP

The Boy Scout contests will be held on Saturday morning, and will be the same as last year, with the same contests and same prizes offered. The Boy Scouts and members of Company K. O. N. G. will be asked to patrol the streets, and keep them clear for the parades, especially the children's parade.

The last action of the committee last evening was the selection of an official Korn Karnival badge, which will be placed on sale two or three weeks before the Karnival. The design is an oxidized silver ear of corn penetrating out of a large, healthy husk, from which is suspended a tri-colored ribbon, green, white and yellow, on which is printed the name and date of the Karnival. It is a tasty design, and will be well received.

Present at the meeting last evening were President Charles Daehler, Directors, Albert Zoellner, A. A. Bode, and Samuel Horchow, Chairman St. Straus, E. W. Richards, Prof. Frank Appel, and Secretary Coe.

Preparations for the 1915 Korn Karnival were started in earnest at a meeting of the majority of the directors of the Business Men's Association and chairman of the different features of the Karnival, held in the offices of the Association in the Masonic Temple. Subsequent meetings will set into motion the plans that have already been decided upon.
Two big features which have been somewhat in doubt were enthusiastically endorsed by the members present, the "Fraternal Parade" and the "Two Mile Dinner". The directors were unanimous in the opinion that no single feature of past Karnivals has contributed as much to their success and enjoyment as the fraternal parades which brought hordes of visiting lodge men and musical organizations to the city. This year, the "Fraternal Parade" will be held on Thursday evening, and will be in charge of Warwick Anderson.

The "Two mile Dinner" was regarded as one of the most novel and unique stunts ever attempted, and the energy of the Korn Karnival committee will be directed toward making it a huge success. Si Straus was authorized to get quotations on the wooden horses that will be used to hold up the tables, which will be made of borrowed lumber. The service will be in charge of the women of the different churches in the city, each church to be assigned one square. The dinner will stand while eating, and the sight promises to be one that will live long in the memories of the Karnival visitors long after the Karnival itself is forgotten. Second street, east of Chillicothe, and Washington street, north of Second, are two locations favored for the staging of the big dinner. George M. Taylor is chairman of the committee on arrangements.

SCHOOL OFFICIALS WILL HELP

A valuable acquisition to the advisory board at the meeting was Prof. Frank Appel, superintendent of the Portsmouth schools, who attended his first Korn Karnival meeting. Prof. Appel assured the committee of the hearty co-operation of himself and his teaching corps.

The co-operation of Professor Appel, insures the success of the children's parade on Thursday afternoon, which the committee feels will be the most beautiful and inspiring pageant of the week. Over four thousand children from the public and parochial schools will be in line. They will be garbed in costumes of all kinds, including policemen, cowboys, cowgirls, soldiers, sailors and many others. "The living flag" will be the feature of this parade, requiring over four hundred children to complete the red, white and blue of Old Glory.

CHILDREN WILL PARADE

An early meeting will be arranged, which will be attended by Prof. Appel, Sister John, Principal of the Holy Redeemer school, and Si Straus, chairman of the children's parade committee. Later, the individual teachers in the different buildings will be called into a meeting, when the matter will be thoroughly explained to them. Suggestions will be furnished them which will be left to the individual teachers to carry out.

Floors, depicting historical events, fairy tales, and Mother Goose rhymes will be a part of the parade, each school building being represented by its float. Prizes will be offered for the best float, and for the best costume.

RURAL SCHOOLS WILL AID

Rural school children will also be invited to take part in the parade, and it is hoped that conditions will be favorable for them to take part.

Prof. Appel also assured the committee that the school exhibit from the Portsmouth schools was practically ready at this time, and could be assembled within a week's time. He advised the members that the school exhibit this year was far in advance of the one last year which elicited such favorable comment. He is now preparing the prize list, which calls for the distribution of $100 in prizes. The exhibit will be held in the Second street school building unless a more favorable location is found.

Similar assurance regarding the rural schools exhibit has been furnished the committee by County Superintendent McCowen, who has the exhibit all assembled ready for the Karnival. Both school exhibits will be shown in the same place; in some classes, they compete against each other; in others, the competition is within their own ranks.

SINGING CONTEST WILL BE HELD

Another big feature in which the public schools will play the most prominent part is the public singing contest on Friday afternoon. Not less than six choruses, of 100 voices each, from the public schools, will compete in the contest, which will be held on the high school veranda.

No action was taken relative to booking free acts, as the committee has not yet given up the hope of securing a circus for the four days. Chairman Si Straus of the

MRS. CAMPBELL EXPLAINS

Editor of The Times:

Please allow me space to correct a statement in Monday's issue. You assert over glaring headlines that the divorce suit of Iva D. Campbell against E. B. Campbell has been settled out of court. There has never been any question of divorce between Mr.

Campbell and myself. Suit was brought to recover money that had been gotten control of through unfair means. The fact that the suit was settled at the solicitation and costs of the defendants, should be ample proof as to who was in the right.

Ohio Woman Recovers After Stomach Torture

Mrs. Nora Britton is well known in Coldwell, O., where she has lived for some time. Her many friends, who know the suffering she has endured from stomach trouble are marveling at the sudden and astonishing improvement in her condition.

I had given up all hope when I saw an advertisement of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and decided to try it. Thank God, relief came at last. I can't say enough for it. I am pleased and thankful. I am recommending it to every person I meet, suffering with this ailment."

HUSBAND CLAIMS HE WAS "TOM-HORSED;" BIG ROW

Mayor Adam Frick was confronted with the rather embarrassing ordeal Tuesday of settling the domestic differences of some of his nearest neighbors, Peter A. Gartner, a well-known painter, and his wife, Mrs. Mattie Gartner.

Mrs. Gartner said her husband was late arriving for supper Monday evening, and when he did come, threw a chunk of meat that he had brought, to the dog, saying, "They won't cook it, so you might as well have it." He next started to prepare his own meal, although she had supper awaiting him, and when he found the match supply exhausted, began a tirade and told her she could leave if she so desired, for the property was his.

When their daughter spoke to him he struck her. She, herself, rushed between them and he began beating her. She went to the mayor's home and when she returned her husband attacked and beat her in the front yard, in plain view of neighbors, some of whom were screaming.

Mrs. Gartner told of Gartner's drinking, how she was forced to get along with a limited supply of money, and how the daughter had saved their home by paying taxes and street assessments.

Gartner, who pleaded not guilty to a charge of assault, admitted having struck his wife, but claimed he did so in self-defense. He claimed the wife and daughter threw him out boldly and that he had been "tom-horsed" for two years and was getting tired of it.

The court gave Gartner a suspended fine of $10 and costs, pending good behavior, and asked him to apologize to his wife and shake hands with her, but he declined, saying that was asking too much of him. They came to an understanding, however, before leaving the building.

Here's A Riddle; Who Has Right Of Way?

Editor Times:

I read with much interest your articles in yesterday's papers, "Who has the right of way when two autos meet." If four machines should approach Eighth and Chillicothe streets at the same instant each going at the rate of thirty miles an hour, A going south on Chillicothe, B going east on Eighth, C going north on Chillicothe and D going west on Eighth.

Where would these autosist be now if each stood on his legal rights, as defined by you as firmly as our present politicians do on theirs?

To illustrate: B has the right of way over A, being right hand machine, C has the right over B, D has the right over C, and A has over D. Each having a legal right over the other, who must give way? The answer is logical and mathematical. Let some of our bright school girls and boys send you the proper solution and tell us had each autoist kept on his proper course where B, C and D would now be geographically, allowing the time to be twenty-four hours and the rate twenty miles per hour, while A waits at The Times office for the answer. Respectfully submitted, would be acceptable.

Dear Miss Wise—I noticed in The Times last night what you said about Palm Beach suits being dry cleaned. I have a suit which is guaranteed to wash. Shall I take chances on having it tubbed?

PORTSMOUTH SPORT.
Certainly. Most of the Palm Beach suits can be tubbed without the least hesitancy. There are several places in the city where the suits are washed with great success. If you will notice the advertisements in The Times you will see where the Palm Beach suits may be tubbed successfully.

Miss Wise—There is a crowd of girls who want to go to the ball game next Thursday but don't think we can afford 1.00 for tickets, so want to know if we can go and pay regular admission.

BASEBALL FAN.
Yes. The "Loyalty" tickets are being sold at $1.00 to help finance the Portsmouth team.

Dear Miss Wise—Can you tell me what will drive fleas out of the house? We are dreadfully tormented with them. Thanking you for any information.

A WORRIED WOMAN.
If the fleas are in your carpets, there is only one way to get them out. Lay over the carpets a blanket and the fleas will at once get on to it. You can then carry the blanket out doors. Sprinkle "Black Flag" over the carpets. If you find dogs in your house you may expect fleas.

Dear Miss Wise—Would it be proper for me to go see a young man who is ill, and has asked to see me. I have never met any members of his family.

Yes, if you are accompanied by some member of your family.

Dear Dolly—I am eighteen years old. For seven months I corresponded with a young man in the army. He says he loves me and asks me to marry him. I have never seen him. He is a great friend of my brother, who is also in the company. I know I love him. What is a nice birthday present for a soldier boy? Please advise.

L. P.
Your brother knowing him intimately would be able to advise you. You are young and have plenty of time to decide when they have a happy homecoming. A book, box of handkerchiefs or some neckties—any of these

Dear Miss Wise—I have gone with a young woman for over a year, and have become greatly attached to her. We were thrown together by accident at first, and I have been unable to keep away from her. The only reason in the world I hesitate asking her to marry me is that we are of different religious faiths, and am afraid it would cause trouble. Do you believe people of different beliefs can be happily married?

PAUL.
I think that lies absolutely with you and the girl. This is something that has caused much trouble in the world, but there are also many instances where such a marriage has resulted in great happiness, so it is in the power of individuals. Why not talk to the girl about it? Perhaps she has thought over the question many times, and has her mind made up about it long ago. The only thing to do is to get such questions settled satisfactorily before marriage, and then there is nothing to quarrel about afterwards.

Dear Miss Wise—Have you a recipe for candied grape fruit rind?

MRS. J. L. D.
Scrape out the membrane and juice, leaving the peel clean. Cut into strips of uniform size with the scissors, and lay in cold water for twenty-four hours, changing the water three times during this time. Drain and lay the peels in clean cold water. Bring to a boil, drain, and replace with fresh, cold water. Cook gently for ten minutes after the boil begins again, drain, and cover with more cold water. Cook in the third water until the skins are tender and clear. Have ready in a saucepan a syrup made in the proportion of one cup of sugar to one of water, and cook clear. Put in the shredded peel and simmer for twenty minutes. Leave in the syrup all night. Next day drain off every drop of syrup and spread the strips upon platters in the sun and air. Finally, when they are cold and stiff, dredge thickly with granulated sugar, spread out again to dry, and pack in boxes lined with waxed paper, with the same between the layers.

Dolly Wise—I am fourteen years of age. Am I old enough to go auto riding alone with a boy of seventeen? Should I go to shows with young men?

You are too young to go auto riding or to theatres alone with boys.

Dear Miss Wise—I am a girl past 15. I was in love with a young man of 22 who paid me the highest attention for about a year. He left town suddenly. I have not heard from him since. Would it be advisable for me to forget him entirely? Kindly reply to M. B.

According to testimony given by the husband and other relatives before Coroner Foertmeyer, in Cincinnati, Mrs. Roy E. Gerardy, wife of a former Portsmouth typewriter salesman, who committed suicide in that city last week, had never fully recovered from the effects of a vicious blow on the head inflicted by a former admirer seven years ago. She was sent to an asylum at the time, was very sensitive about her condition, and it made her melancholy.

Summer Suggestions For Baby's Mother

Seasonable Advice on the Health of Children in Hot Weather

No one requires as much food in summer as in winter. Do not over-feed children during the hot weather. Serve only the lighter and more easily digested foods, and make sure the bowels keep normally active.

Most of the troubles to which children seem particularly susceptible in summer have their origin in a constipated condition. The first care of the mother should be to see that the children are regular. At the first sign of a disposition to neglect this important function a mild laxative should be administered promptly. Cathartics and purgatives should never be given to children as they are harsh and violent in their action and tend to upset the entire system. The combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin, sold in drug stores under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, is now very generally used to correct stomach and bowel trouble and is especially adapted for children, being pleasant to the taste, mild and gentle in action and free from opiate or narcotic drugs of any description. A dose at bedtime brings relief next morning in an easy, natural manner, without griping or other discomfort.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is sold in drug stores for fifty cents a bottle. It has been on the market for a quarter of a century and is today the standard household remedy in countless homes throughout the country. A free trial bottle can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 453 Washington St., Monticello, Ill.

CLAIMS WATER COMES FROM OLD SPRINGS

W. W. Watson, resident engineer of the J. F. Wimer company, in a letter to the mayor, expresses the firm belief that complaints from the Idlewild Realty company about waste water from the filtration and coagulating plants flowing onto its land are unfounded. He says the water does not come from the basins, but from old wells, or springs, on the hillside, and that it has been flowing across the road at about this point for many years. But to satisfy all parties concerned, and to make sure that the basins do not leak, Mr. Watson will make a test within the next few days.

The city service department will, with the permission of the street railway company, remove a small sewer pipe under the roadway leading to the underground crossing from Gallia pike, because of complaints from the Idlewild company.

DON'T EVER WEAR A FIG LEAF

Renewed complaints were received by the police Monday about boys minus their clothes bathing in the Ohio river near the wharfbottom.

Officer Osborn was detailed to serve final warning on the offenders that the next time they are caught there they will be arrested and fined.

ON WESTERN TRIP

William H. Braunlin, past worthy president of River City Aerie, Fraternal Order of Eagles, is on his way to the far West on a special train with a delegation of prominent Cincinnati Eagles to attend the national convention of the order in Spokane, Washington, during the week beginning August 9th. Mr. Braunlin is the accredited delegate from River City Aerie.

The party will be gone thirty days, during which they will visit the San Francisco and San Diego Expositions, the Grand Canyon, and other points of interest in the West.

HERBERT "HUNG ON," BUT HE LOST BIG FISH

In the columns of Sunday's Columbus Dispatch, devoted to fishing, there appeared the following narrative about Herbert Caldwell, nine-year-old son of County Treasurer and Mrs. M. J. Caldwell, of this city, who is visiting in the Capital City:

"Herbert Caldwell, nine-year-old son of the treasurer of Scioto county, who is visiting Frank Sullivan, had an exciting experience with a monster catfish Sunday after Sullivan had baited his hook with a soft craw. Sullivan and George Pope left the boy fishing and went up stream for some distance, when they heard him yelling. Rushing back, they saw young Caldwell hanging on to the pole for dear life. The fish, which they say was at least 20 inches long, came to the top of the water twice, but just as they got there, it broke the line and swam away. "Why didn't you give it some line?" said Sullivan. "O, I wasn't going to let it go," replied the boy. "I just hung on to it."

Help! Come Kill This 10 Ft. Snake!

"Help, brother, help! There's a snake that is ten feet long and as big around as a sappling in my house."

That was the astonishing declaration that reached Charles 'Dad' Davis' ears via the telephone Monday morning, his sister, Aunt Hannah Wood doing the talking from her home in New Boston.

"Dad", of course, lost no time in reaching his sister's home. But he didn't find a ten foot snake—although the reptile he did find probably looked that long to Mrs. Wood. The reptile, which proved to be a cow-snake, was about two feet long and about as thick through as "Dad's" little finger. The snake was soon dispatched and Mrs. Wood's fears for safety allayed. The snake had crawled through an open door and there was considerable excitement in the Wood home until Mr. Davis arrived with his war club.

The merchants are responding liberally to the cry for assistance, and their action last evening should help make the day the biggest day in base ball in the history of the city.

TAKE SALTS FOR THE KIDNEYS IF YOUR BACK HURTS

We Should Drink Lots of Water and Eat Less Meat, Says Noted Authority on Kidney Disorders

Recommends a Spoonful of Jad Salts In Glass of Water Before Breakfast to Stimulate Kidneys and Eliminate the Uric Acid

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked, get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy, the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush off the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

Eat less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

CITY OFFICERS UNIT FOR CELEBRATION OF 'LOYALTY DAY'

Every Employee Has Purchased His Ticket, Half Holiday Declared

Loyalty tickets went with a rush at the city building Monday. Mayor Frick and his board of control set their stamp of approval upon the project and this will go far to insure its complete success.

The sub-committee reported to the general committee Monday evening that its entire allotment of fifty tickets had been disposed of.

The mayor has declared "Loyalty Day" Thursday, August 5th, a half holiday for such city employees as can be spared without discommoding important city business. Of course all the night patrolmen can get off for the matinee pastime, so they were solicited in a body at roll call Saturday evening. Chairman Will Inman made the boys a neat little talk, at the close of which all the officers present took a loyalty badge and will be out at Millbrook Park on next Thursday afternoon rooting like the mischief for Portsmouth to trim the Mayville team. Fred Baseman canvassed the balance of the Safety Department with equally gratifying success.

As for the City Councilmen, they do not meet until Wednesday evening, but their clerk, George L. Gableman, who is the third member of the sub-committee, stated that all of the city dads are loyal baseball fans, and he pledged each of them as good for a ticket. The committee feels gratified that all sub-committee responded so cheerfully to their appeal.

The list of purchasers from the city hall committee were: Mayor Frick, Vice Mayor Cook, Councilmen Geo. L. Gableman, John McCall, Geo. M. Osborn, Frank Schumack, J. E. Shump, Ed. J. Westphal, Charles W. Wilson, City Auditor Geo. Gableman, Treasurer D. E. ## Nutter And Sims Sold To St. Louis

That the Ohio State League is full of promising players is shown by the fact that the St. Louis Nationals, managed by Miller Huggins, have purchased Outfielder Nutter and Pitcher Sims of the Charleston Senators. They will be delivered Sept. 4, on the same day that Pitcher Park, of Lexington team, joins the St. Louis American League team, he having been sold the other day for full delivery. The above information was telephoned William M. Gableman by President Joe Carr Monday afternoon.

LOCAL TEAM KALSOMINED BY BIDDY'S "SENATORS," TWO PLAYERS INJURED

Charleston, W. Va., Aug. 3.

M. R. BEERS and his gang of hired men joined the white washers' union yesterday and smeared a thick coat of it on the visiting athletes from Portsmouth, O. The painful operation was performed at Exhibition Park and the final count was 5 to 0. The home folks emerged without a scratch, but two of the enemy were carried off the field of battle. Outside of that, no one was hurt.

The contest was staged in all kinds of weather, starting in the bright sunshine and ending in a downpour of rain. The shower-bath proved beneficial for the athletes, however, and they played better ball toward the end. A couple of rainstorms a week might improve their batting averages, provided our athletes are caught without umbrellas.

Aided by the excellent twirling of Coffindaffer, our local prizes amassed more runs than were needed to put the game on the ice, while the Cobs swung futilely at the twisters and benders that waited across and near the plate. The visitors obtained four scattered bingles during the afternoon, no two of them coming in a single inning. Jacobus was imposed upon for eight safeties, three of them being for extra bases.

There were a few anxious moments in the last stanza, however, when the invaders crowded the bases with one out and the moist clouds were dripping. Nutter opened the inning with a delightful error on Diltz's easy fly. Mr. Diltz hesitated on first while Sharman grounded to Hudson. Hancock, who batted in place of Johnson, was tendered a pass to first by Coffindaffer, and Ferguson, who sat in for Caton, followed the example of his playmate. The runways were filled and with only one down. Mr. Beers again resorted to his early detective training and called Sims from the coop to warm up for the rescue act.

Coffindaffer tightened up, however, and forced McHenry to lift a high one to Daubert and Watt Powell ran back and pulled down Spencer's long drive to left. Mr. Sims was not needed, but Mr. Beers still has faith in his detecting powers.

Portsmouth played in hard luck during the entire performance. The breaks in the game went against them, and two players were injured. In the fifth Johnson spiked himself on the knee and suffered a blood clot on the heel and was forced to retire. Then in the eighth Caton was spiked in the leg by Powell and was carried off the field. He probably will be out of the game for several days. The injured athletes were collected by Percival Kent, the well known chauffeur, and taken to a safe place, where they will remain until their wounds are healed.

Although the score seems one sided, there were many sensational plays. In the first Daubert leaped in the air and speared Diltz' line drive with one hand, and in the fifth Curtis pulled the same stunt on a smash by Bush. Hudson also distinguished himself when he ran back of first and got Spencer's grounder of a two-bagger. Then, in put on the finishing touches, all Powell made his circus catch in the ninth which retired the side and prevented three runs from crossing the pan.

The home folks opened up on Jacobus in the third and pushed two count-ers across the plate. Hudson opened the chapter with a single to center and went to second on a pretty sacrifice by Coffindaffer. Nutter bounced a double off the right field fence, but Hudson, fearing the ball would be caught, did not start until the ball fell safe and halted at third. Beers hit to Spencer, but the first baseman threw wild to the plate and two runs came in. Beers took second on the play and stole third. Jacobus made a sensational one handed stop of Powell's grounder and caught Beers off third and Daubert ended the inning with a grounder to Bush.

The Senators scored another in the fourth. Curtis opened with a single, but was forced by McCullough, who was subbing for Corbin. Troutman flied to Caton and Hudson busted one on the nose for three bases, scoring McCullough. Hudson perished on third when Coffindaffer was thrown out by Bush.

The last scores came in the eleventh. Beers whiffed and Powell hit the right field fence for two bases. On the throw in, Caton rushed in front of Wall to get the ball and was spiked on the foot. The accident was unavoidable, as Powell had no chance to get out of the way. After administering first and second aid to the injured, a performance indulged in by members of both teams, the game was resumed. Daubert dropped one between several players in right field and the ball fell safe, Powell taking third. Daubert stole second and McCullough cleared the bases with a double to left. Spencer reached up in the air and pulled down Troutman's drive and the stuff was out.

The visitors made a determined effort to stage a regular ninth inning rally, but Wall Powell thwarted their evil designs by running back and grabbing Spencer's vallop that had a three base label upon it. The score:

Factories And Stores To Close For Celebration Of Loyalty Day, Donations Many And Liberal

That "Loyalty Day", Thursday afternoon, August 5, will be a "whale of success", is assured from the kind reception being accorded the soliciting committee. Just to show the warmth of the reception it is only necessary to print the above subscriptions, which were given whole heartedly and even joyfully. Other subscriptions have been received—hundreds of them, but the committee have not reported them officially. However, every person who purchases one or more tickets will have his or her name printed upon the honor roll.

The business men and manufacturers of Portsmouth have long since decided that baseball is a good thing for the city. It is a clean sport and has been conducted along high planes. And now that the club owners are far in the hole financially, the progressive people of Portsmouth are going to see to it that the team is given a big lift.

The committee feels hopeful that more than 1000 tickets will be sold, and their hope is erected on a solid foundation, for no matter which way they turn there is a liberal response. Quite a large number of fans are wearing tags. This not only conclusively demonstrates the loyalty of the wearers, but helps to advertise the big event to be staged at Millbrook next Thursday afternoon.

CLAD IN KIMONA, WOMAN EVADES CORDON OF POLICE; MAY BE RUNNING YET

When police raided her home Monday night, about 10:30, Mrs. Anna Bolen, of Ninth and John streets, attired only in a red kimono, ran through a rear door into F. E. Bower's automobile garage next door, and at the rate she was going, must be nearing Halifax by this time.

Once in the garage, the woman had an easy avenue of escape, for the front of the garage was knocked out a few nights before by an automobile crashing into it. Capt. Grant Cooper, who headed the raiding squad, had very gallantly allowed the woman ten minutes in which to dress herself. When the time limit expired he stepped into the rear part of the house, shouting, "Well, are you ready?" Receiving no response, he entered the next room, only to find his bird had flown, she not having stopped to gather up her clothes. Her sister, Mabel Jones, was ordered to appear in police court Tuesday morning.

Two young men, said to be residents of New Boston, and who gave the fictitious names of Charles Osborn and William Kelley, were taken to headquarters by Officers Albrecht and Henderson, but soon after secured their release by putting up cash bonds.

Capt. Cooper camped out in the vicinity of the Bolen home for the remainder of the night thinking Mrs. Bolen would later return for her clothes, but was disappointed. He ended his long vigil at six o'clock Tuesday morning, making arrangements with neighbors to notify him as soon as they caught sight of Mrs. Bolen. She is the wife of Ed Bolen, a painter, but they have not been living together.

The police officials claim that they have been receiving persistent complaints for some time past that there has been a steady stream of male callers to the house nightly, and that beer and whiskey were carried into the place in great quantities. There is no rear entrance way and the whole neighborhood has been aroused for weeks, but the police were never able to perfect their plans for a raid until Monday night.

None of the parties appeared in police court Tuesday and fines of $10 and costs each were assessed against them.

SEVERE PIMPLES ALL OVER FACE

Would Burn and Itch. Scratched and Pimples Spread. Disfigured While They Lasted. Used Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment. Face Clear as Anybody's.

Burning, Itching—I had matted pimples all over my face so thick that you could hardly put the point of a needle on my face without touching one. They would burn and itch and I would scratch them all they would bleed. Then they would leave a mark. Scratching caused the pimples to spread. They disfigured me while they lasted.

I used two treatments and used different soaps and ointments but they did no good. Then I used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I used the Soap every morning and evening and the Ointment every evening just before I went to bed. To-day my face is as clear as anybody's. (Signed) Miss Myrtle Orth, June 7, 1914.

Mr. Tynes Explains As To Engineer Griggs

In regard to printed statements that have been made during the past few days to the effect that Julian Griggs, of Columbus, had been considered as engineer in charge of the then proposed city water works, and that the proposition as advanced by former Mayor Fred N. Tynes had been turned down by council, of which George M. Osborn was a member, Mr. Tynes, in an interesting view Tuesday, made the following statement in regard to Mr. Griggs:

"At no time was Mr. Griggs under consideration as special engineer in charge of the city water works. Prior to my going into office, the suggestion was made to me by friends of Mr. Griggs that he would make a most desirable man as city engineer of Portsmouth. I looked into the matter and Mr. Griggs came to Portsmouth and submitted the terms under which he could afford to locate here. I called a meeting of the old and new members of the city council, and we discussed the matter informally. It was felt that the salary asked by Mr. Griggs was in excess of what Portsmouth could afford to pay, especially in view of the fact that we had competent local men who could be secured at a lower salary. That was all there was to the matter. As to the engineer in charge of the water works, that was a separate matter and came up later. Mr. Witmer submitted plans, and made a number of trips here, as did other engineers. The plans of Mr. Witmer seemed to fit our situation better than those of others and council accordingly entered into a contract with him. Had Mr. Griggs been city engineer, he would have had no more to do with building the water works than did the men who have since served in the office. Mr. Harper and Mr. Wilhelm. ## Negro Showed His Money, Footpads Helped Themselves TO GIVE DECISION SOON

Charles Furstan, a strange negro, was held up and robbed of his money by two men who threw him down in the gateway of the Daniel Fawcett home on Eleventh street and rifled his pockets, Monday night about 9:30.

Thomas Evans and John Washington, negroes, are locked up at the city prison as suspects. Washington was identified as one of the two men seen to accompany Furstan up Eleventh street after friends had vainly urged him to leave his roll at a Greek ice cream parlor for the night, they fearing that in his very intoxicated condition that he would lose his money.

Mrs. Fawcett was an eye-witness to the struggle in front of her home and heard Furstan exclaim, "They got every cent I had," as he regained his feet. She notified the police. Furstan at first claimed he had been "rolled" for $14.76, later increasing the figure to $22, but when searched a five dollar bill was found on him.

Evans and Washington both denied robbing the other man. Washington was in police court one day last week for alleged robbing a foreigner in the N. & W. railroad car, but was dismissed for lack of evidence, though given a street gang sentence for drunkenness.

Earlier in the evening police received a hurry call to the Gallia street crossing, reports having it that a stranger had been knocked in the head and robbed. Officers Cooper and Smith found the man who at first stubbornly refused to answer their questions, but when ordered locked up by Capt. Cooper gave his name as J. K. Jones and his home as Virginia. He said he had been way-laid and beaten up and $10 taken from him. His ramblings and incoherent replies caused one of the officers to accuse him of being demented. To this he replied, "Well, the judge let me out." He finally admitted that he had not been struck by anyone or robbed.

The fact that they could detect no sign of the man drinking strengthened the suspicions of the officers that he was not altogether right, and they locked him up for safe-keeping.

The hearing of the negro suspects was continued Tuesday until Wednesday to give Furstan an opportunity to summon his witnesses. Jones told the court that he was a telegraph operator from Norfolk, Va., that drink had caused his downfall and that his robbery was simply the imagination of his drink inflamed mind.

AMERICAN WOMEN PREPARING FOR WAR

New York, Aug. 3.—The special relief society of which Mrs. William Alexander, of this city, is the president announced today the beginning of a campaign "to arouse women of America to a full realization of immediate preparedness" for war. hopes to increase this list of volunteer hospitals.

Lists of volunteers for war relief work in this country and a list of nurses who will be available for field and hospital work are being compiled. A statement issued by the society that "if war is ever to come the mere instinct of self-preservation directs that women, too, should be prepared to defend American ideals of liberty, peace and honor."

VILLA EDICTS DRIVE MERCHANTS AWAY

El Paso, Texas, Aug. 3.—George E. Carothers, special agent of the state department, who arrived here early today from Chihuahua City, denied General Villa had declared "if the United States does not like my actions, it can go to hell."

"I was in a room adjoining the conference," he added, "and I am positive that if General Villa had used that language I would have known it."

General Villa since Saturday had modified his order of confiscation, Carothers said, and now planned to station a representative of the Villa government in each store, whose duty it was to see that profits did not exceed fifteen percent.

Consulate of the United States, French, Germany, Italy and Spain, Carothers said, had drawn up a list of questions upon the status of the stock in trade (and private property of the nations which General Villa was to have answered yesterday. Carothers said he left Chihuahua City before the answer was received.

Edward Wisbrun, of Santa Barbara, Chihuahua, stated that his general store business had been taken over by the Villa government.

General Villa early today was reported enroute to Juarez.

More than 150 merchants who say they have been expelled from Chihuahua City by the edicts of General Villa expected to arrive here today, and in dispatches forwarded from there protesting to the state department they declare the entire population of the district is starving, because of the confiscation of their stores and because of the edicts of Villa.

They declare the rates of exchange fixed by Villa between his paper currency and gold has forced them from business. This rate was decreed at 20 cents silver for one peso and at current prices of the paper money across the border it will buy goods at only two cents on the dollar.

Reports received here assert there has been no corn in Chihuahua for two weeks and only one shipment of beans has been received in that time because of the withdrawal of the merchants from business. Flour is at famine prices, it is said, and trainways and lighting plants have shut down because of lack of coal.

Villa is said to have summoned all mine owners to a conference on August 9 for the purpose of endeavoring to force a loan of $300,000, and he threatens to close all mining properties which are not represented.

U. S. TO ASK AID IN MEXICAN SITUATION

Washington, August 3.—An announcement that the United States has asked the co-operation of South and Central America in an effort to settle the Mexican difficulty caused widespread interest today in official and diplomatic circles. A conference on the subject will be held here Thursday afternoon between Secretary Lansing and the diplomatic representatives of six of the leading Latin-American nations.

While there had been no expectation of activity on the part of this government in the Mexican situation, almost kaleidoscopic developments in Mexico, particularly in Mexico City, are believed to have prompted the administration to take immediate steps. Just what those steps will be and how far the joint action of whatever sort it may be, between the United States and the Pan-American group will extend, were subjects of considerable speculation here today. The conference is the direct result of the failure of the Mexican factional leaders to heed President Wilson's recent statement urging them to compose their differences and restore peace in the Southern Republic.

WAR BULLETINS

Amsterdam, Holland, August 3.—(Via London)—Heavy fighting is in progress on the British front near Ypres. According to telegrams from Courtrai, Belgium, the boom of great guns and mine explosions were audible there for hours and it was quickly followed by a steady stream of wounded men from the vicinity of Hooge. Most of the casualties were the result of shrapnel wound.

London, August 3.—The crest of the ridge in the Gallipoli peninsula has been gained by British troops and the position of the British in the Dardanelles has been improved according to a statement given out today by the official press bureau.

London, August 3.—The British steamer Ranza has been sunk. The captain and 11 members of the crew of 24 have been landed safely.

WAR SENDS PRINCESS TO REJOIN HUSBY

Princess Rasbigh, photographed aboard Dante Alighieri. Princess Rasbigh, who was formerly Miss Laura Stallo of Cincinnati, sailed from New York a few days ago on the steamer Dante Alighieri for Italy. She is going to Naples to be near her husband, who left New York three weeks ago to join the Austro-Hungarian army.

CITY BOARD INSPECTS ALL LAKE STEAMERS

Chicago, August 3.—A board named by the city council to inspect the safety of excursion steamships sailing out of the port of Chicago, today began its work. The board is composed of W. J. Wood, naval architect; Henry A. Allen, William A. Nelson, Herbert H. Evans, Adam E. Wreckler and F. H. Ayer. Sand bags weighing as much as a full quota of passengers will be placed on one side of the steamship Christopher Columbus, next Thursday as a means of ascertaining the seaworthiness of the vessel.

The federal grand jury today resumed the taking of evidence regarding the alleged "cranky" performances of the steamship Eastland, which capsized at its dock a week ago Saturday. It is declared that twelve or fifteen indictments are being drawn and will be completed within a week. Solicitation for funds for sufferers of the Eastland practically ceased today. From a statement made today by Mayor Thompson and the relief committee, that the sum given was sufficient to care for the needs of the relatives of the victims. It was announced that subscriptions now are in excess of $500,000 and that benefits to be given in the next few days will considerably increase that figure.

Given Old Picture, It's Worth $50,000

Toledo, August 3.—Miss Dorothy Southard, society girl and daughter of Frank Southard, president of the Toledo Metal Wheel and Tool company while visiting friends in the East sometime ago, was given as a remembrance a picture which she had found in the attic and for which she expressed admiration. She was told that the picture had been in the family 300 years.

Unaware that the picture was worth more than its surface beauty, Miss Southard had it pressed here. Upon its arrival it was given a place in the attic at the Southard home. A few days ago it was sent to an art shop to have its frame regilded. It was then that it was learned that the canvas was either a Van Dyke or Rubens and was worth probably $50,000.

Several art critics have viewed the canvas, among them Carlton Chapman, famous artist. It has been pronounced genuine by all and a value of $50,000 was placed upon it. Chester Hayes, a noted authority, is to examine the canvas shortly.

The picture, according to Miss Southard, was brought from England in 1600.

Paving Harvard Place

BARON IS KILLED

Rio de Janeiro, August 3.—Baron Allemand Werther, son-in-law of the late Baron de Rio Branco, Brazil's famous foreign minister, was killed last night while trying to gain possession of his children, who have been living with his former wife, who obtained a divorce from him.

The divorce trial of Baron Werther, which began in September, 1913, resulted in sensational disclosures. The baroness declared that her husband seized important diplomatic documents belonging to the ministry of foreign affairs of Brazil and threatened her with death when she protested. Baron Werther, she asserted, had frequent interviews with Herr Mikhael, then German minister to Brazil. She said also that her husband communicated to the Krupps and other German firms documents referring to the defense of Brazil.

About a year before the divorce proceedings were instituted Baron Werther was shot three times by his nephew Senhor Aldeia Paranhos-Silva, but his wounds were not serious. The shooting took place at the baron's home in Petropolis. Senhor Silva declared he mistook his uncle for a burglar.

MAYOR HOPES TO AVERT STRIKE

New York, August 3.—Mayor Mitchell's council of conciliation today, to formulate a plan which would prevent a strike of 90,000 members of the International Ladies' Garment Workers' Union. Nearly 40,000 members of the union have voted to strike unless their differences with the cloak, suit and skirt manufacturers' protective association are adjusted to their satisfaction. It was stated that in event of failure of police to move, the strike would begin tomorrow. The mayor's council hope to be able to submit a satisfactory peace plan today.

Earl of the corps of engineers, U. S. army. The wedding will occur at the old home of the Wheelers in Green Spring Valley, near Baltimore, and will be one of the big social events of the coming fall.

SON A DESERTER, FATHER SEEKS AID

Louisville, August 3.—Edward Kinna, held at Newport News, Va., as a deserter from the British naval reserves left his home here June 9, four days after his sixteenth birthday, with the announcement that he was off to see the world and make a name for himself in the United States army. But was rejected because of his youth. George Kinna, his father, today said he would seek aid of Mayor Duschmeyer to have his son released from custody and returned to Louisville. Mr. Kinna said he knew nothing of his son's whereabouts until notified of his detention.

ONE KILLED IN BOMB EXPLOSION

Philadelphia, August 3.—One man was killed and three others were seriously injured in an explosion today in the experimental bomb proof department of the United States arsenal in Frankford, this city.

The man killed was James Harkins, a civilian. The injured are M. Frisco and Arthur Lumleest, soldiers assigned to the ordnance department, and George Brown, a civilian.

The two soldiers are in a critical condition. Brown is not seriously hurt. It is understood that the experiments were being made with a high-power explosive shell at the time of the explosion.

ST. LOUIS BANKER COMMITS SUICIDE

St. Louis, Mo., August 3.—Frank Johnson, assistant cashier of the Mercantile National Bank of St. Louis, committed suicide here by shooting himself in the head late last night. The body was found early today by a night watchman in an office of the bank. Festus J. Wade is president of the bank.

Johnson had been assistant cashier of the bank since its organization six years ago.

Hugh L. Powers, vice president, said Johnson had not been in good health recently.

Will Give English Notes Tomorrow

Washington, August 3.—Time for the publication of the three notes from Great Britain and one from Germany, all dealing with the commercial rights of neutral nations in war time, was being arranged today. The British notes probably will be given out late today for publication tomorrow morning and the German note Thursday morning.

The first British note defends the order-in-council; the second justifies the Allies' efforts to cut off Germany's export trade; and the third defends prize court proceedings. The German note continues the discussion of the sinking of the American ship William P. Frye, and is said to justify Germany's course in sinking merchant ships, provided she pays for them.

The United States shortly will reply to the British notes, but it is not known what course will be pursued regarding the German note.

America Must Pay For Belgian Goods

Washington, August 3.—Financial settlement through London is one of the conditions laid down by Great Britain in reply to American efforts to secure Belgian goods consigned to this country and new held at Rotterdam. The state department has represented unofficially that no benefit would accrue to Germany through this trade, but Great Britain apparently intends to see that the money paid by American importers goes to Belgium only.

Belgian goods will be released only when payment is made through London. Great Britain is forward the money to the Belgian shippers direct.

State department officials believe that American importers cannot comply with this condition as in many cases the goods held up at Rotterdam have already been paid for. Further negotiations will be undertaken to secure agreement as this class of traffic.

SAYS FRANCE WOULDN'T HAVE INVADED BELGIUM

Paris, August 3.—The Belgian government has published a book and gray book containing various documents relating to the war, notably a communication from Baron Guillaume, Belgian minister to Paris, to the Belgian minister of foreign affairs, dated February 22, 1913, apparently contradicting documents recently published by the Germans alleged to have been found in the state archives at Brussels and purported to have been written by Baron Guillaume.

Explaining to M. De Margerie, of the French foreign office, the meaning of the Belgian military law, M. Guillaume writes that he said:

"We wish to avoid, if possible, having Belgium again become as she too often has been, the battlefield of Europe—President Poincaré has assured me France would never take the initiative to violate our neutrality. Our aim is solely to prevent to the limit of our power the violation of our neutrality."

"The second part of the gray book consists of protests and addresses by the Belgian government to the Austrian and German governments against alleged violations of war and The Hague conference."

WANT OKUMA CABINET
Tokyo, August 3.—The elder statesmen have recommended to Emperor Yoshihito that the cabinet headed by Count Okuma as premier be requested to remain in office unconditionally. This decision was communicated by Prince Oyama and Field Marshal Yamagata to Count Okuma who said he would take up with his colleagues the question of withdrawing their resignations.

IN THE NAME OF CHARITY

Within the past two weeks the city has been overrun with women solicitors selling a ten-cent magazine, the statement being made that the proceeds are to be used for the benefit of poor little crippled children. The solicitors approach men and women with the plea: "Won't you help poor crippled children by giving a dime for this magazine?" and in ninety-nine cases out of one hundred the money is handed over without question. It is only a dime you know and somehow a fellow feels rather cheap if he refuses to give that small sum to aid in the care of the maimed and needy orphans of the land. It seldom occurs to one to ask who are these helpless ones, or where is the money to be used. Most of us just pony up and virtuously think we have done a little to make life better for some poor little, unfortunate person.

But, and there is a mighty big but, does this money go to aid any poor children? Miss Esther Eaton of the children's welfare department of the Ohio State Board of Charities has issued a warning against these solicitors. She says that representatives of five different ten-cent magazines have been abroad in Ohio and that "investigation shows that in most of these cases none of the proceeds of the sale goes to benefit poor children."

Miss Eaton cites the case of one Chicago magazine in which $6530 was derived by street sales at ten cents per copy. Of this the solicitor got 5 cents of each ten. The managers of the paper received the balance and of the total amount only $173 was expended for charity; clothing to the value of $14.80 was distributed. The balance went for administration expenses or into the private pockets of the managers of the scheme. This particular magazine was run by a man with several aliases.

So the money goes. There may be worthy instances along this line, cases in which there is a genuine appeal for charity. It is hard to discriminate, however, between the false and the true, and the former are in the majority. So our advice to you is the next time you are approached in the interest of "poor little children" you either summarily dismiss the solicitor or else satisfy yourself thoroughly as to where your money is going. The best way is to not buy. If you have any dimes to help "poor little children" keep them for Portsmouth. You can find plenty of places here where a dime will fit in nicely and besides you will be sure that the money is going in the right direction.

Tell the fake charity solicitor to move on.

WHY THE SUMMER FUR?

The interesting person who edits the society column of the Ohio State Journal has relieved our mind a lot by answering the question "Why the summer fur?" She says in her liquid way that the answer to this important question of warm weather fashions is the same as the answer to that equally important query, "Why is a string and how long?" Then this critic of fashions goes on to say that a 1915 Summer girl is not in it unless she has a necklace of white or cinnamon fur. To follow the white fox-fur costs all the way from $1.95 to $600. The skin of a really, truly white fox is just about worth its weight in diamonds, and the girl who has a white fox fur that can prove his ancestry can walk with her head high and her chest puffed out, according to the State Journal editors.

We have been busily looking for the summer fur girl here in Portsmouth but have reluctantly become convinced that there ain't no such article. We be blessed if we understand it either. With fine, real imitation summer fur furs, at only $1.95 to $500 each we do not see why our streets are not crowded with the sweet young things of this great and growing metropolis, each proudly decked in her summer furs and a price tag floating out behind. We are quite sure that it would have a most delightfully cooling effect upon the rest of us these summer days when the thermometer hangs around the 100 mark.

We voice our militant admiration of Col. "Billy" Gims' declaration that he is going to land the Republican nomination for mayor because the voters know that all the other fellows are the tools of designing party bosses and are going to nominate him as the only unbiased, unsold and strictly independent candidate running on his own merits. In one of our dark moods, however, we sometimes think that maybe "Billy" is a little mistook about the rest of the populace. Still, we admire his faith in the good intentions of the people.

There are times on Sunday afternoons when vocalistic friends in our neighborhood are so persistently and determinedly "throwing out the life line" that we mildly wonder why the dickens the fellow they are trying to save does not grab the line and be done with it.

After the primary is over we are going to have a little convention at those politicians in the 'people' I have trusted but who threw me down" class. As a charter member we expect to issue the call and invite Bert Kaps and his 1123 sure ones and Charlie McCormick and his 1648 till the bell taps crowd to sit on our right and left hand respectively.

THE "HARMONY" CAMPAIGN GOES ON.

BE LOYAL TO OUR TEAM

All signs point to the fact that "Loyalty Day" staged for Millbrook Park next Thursday afternoon will be one of the biggest baseball days in the history of Portsmouth. And this is as it should be. So far as we are concerned we hope that fully 2500 people will be in attendance at the game between our "Champs" and the Mayaville team.

To be real plain about the matter, the club owners "need the money." They have been operating the team at a heavy loss this season, despite the fact that the club is one of the fastest aggregations that ever represented Portsmouth in the Ohio State League. The team is composed of clean, gentlemanly athletes, who are a credit to the profession. They played so brilliantly through the first half of the season that they had no trouble in annexing the pennant.

The mere fact that Portsmouth is the only city out of 19 that has held fast since the O. S. L. was started sounds good to us. Through prosperity and adversity the local club owners have furnished the "fans" good baseball, and kept the city on the baseball map.

And now that the going seems to be a little rough it is up to the citizens and business men generally to rally to the support of the team owners. Be a loyal fan, and purchase a Loyalty Tag, you are sure to get your dollar's worth at the game, and, well it always did pay to be loyal.

Coming events cast their shadows before and, we see wherein one George W. Sheppard is going to get his'n, because he appropriated that water works brick unto himself and got sore about it. A heavy gun is being primed today and is to be trained on the Sheppard camp this evening with the full intention of blowing George off the map.

Again we rise to remark in the interest of the rest of the community that we cannot see why on earth there should not be an effort to keep a temporary road that has to be used six or eight months in a passable condition. Why not put a patrol guard on duty with a pick and shovel. One man could keep the roads in shape, and the cost would be small.

The Fatherland cruelly says of Henry James that he has written lots of books that nobody reads. Henry recently got mad because this country did not go to war with Germany and became a citizen of England.

The readiness with which it is raining makes us think that maybe it would be a bright idea to rush that flood wall extension to completion. If we had this sort of a winter we would find need of that wall at least a dozen times before spring.

Sketches of Love
OLD NEW YORK
By Wm. Longley

New York, August 3.—Death seems doubly reasonable when it strikes down an artist when it catapults them laughing and full of joy into their graves as it did three visitors to Coney Island when a flying roller coaster hurtled off the tracks on a curve.

Death protruded his grinning mask in the care-free environment when the festivities were at top speed. The constant demand for thrills at Coney has ever season given a certain number of persons the Big Thrill from which no one ever comes back to tell about.

The amusement resort is the essence of impertinence and illusion. It is a vast improvisation of rough timber and paper mache and when it burns the roaring flames sweep through it as they do through a dry spruce forest.

Now that three have met sudden death, of course, the dead motorist of the roller coaster is blamed for the speed with which he took the fatal curve.

Louis the Lump is in the police toils again. A gay and festive gangster was Louis and for years he held sway and terrorized folk in Chinatown and the Chatham Square district. His real name was Louis Poggi and he gained fame for the killing of the celebrated gunman Kid Twist on a crowded street.

Not long after that he put another notch in his gun when he shot Cyclone Lewis. In 1912 Louis the Lump mixed up in a gang fight in Franklin street and was arrested. His friends along the Bowery put up $4,000 bail and Louis the Lump was not seen again until he walked in and gave himself up the other day.

He had wandered about the country and finally became conscience stricken because the money his friends put up for him as bail was forfeited. He took a "rattler" home and now goes up to Sing Sing awhile.

The horrid thought suggests itself that maybe some of the old guard of gangsters stole George Koller's pants while he was displaying his manly form in the limpid waters of the Ohio at the bathing beach. There's no telling what the gang will do in its desperation over being shut off from the pie counter.

The Gallia pike-paving seems to be as fine a piece of work as ever was done hereabouts. But the Gallia street curbing is about the fiercest piece of work that was ever perpetrated. It is no wonder that the city engineer refuses to accept the job until the curbing is fixed up satisfactorily.

It might not be a bad idea to put Henry Ruel to inspecting that towpath job under rush orders to see that the towpath is ready for travel by the time the bridge is done.

As the days go by and still no sound comes from the Hon. Nate B. Gilliland we are more than ever worried about his silence and more than ever convinced that there is devilment afoot.

America For Me.

This time to see the Old World and travel up and down. Among the famous palaces and cities of renown. To admire the crumbly castles and the statues of the kings. But now I think I've had enough of antiquated things.

So it's home again and home again, America for me. My heart is turning home again and there I long to be. In the land of youth and freedom, beyond the ocean bars, where the air is full of sunlight and the flag is full of stars.

Oh, London is a man's town, there's power in the air. And Paris is a woman's town, with flayers in her hair. And it's sweet to dream of Venice, and it's great to study Rome. But when it comes to living there is no place like home.

I like the German firwoods, in green battalions drilled. I like the gardens of Versailles, with flashing fountains filled. But, oh, to take your hand, my dear and ramble for a day in the friendly western woodland where nature has her way.

I know that Europe's wonderful, yet something seems to lack. The past is too much with her, and the people looking back. But the glory of the present is to make future free. We love our land for what she is and what she is to be.

Oh, it's home again, and home again, America for me. I want a ship that's westward bound to plow through rolling seas.

To the blessed land of Room Enough, beyond the ocean bars, where the air is full of sunlight and the flag is full of stars.

CLAD IN KIMONA, WOMAN EVADES CORDON OF POLICE; MAY BE RUNNING YET

When police raided her home Sunday night, about 10:30, Mrs. Anna Baker, of Ninth and John streets, arrived only in a red kimono, ran through a rear door into F. J. Fowler's automobile garage and, at the rate she was going, must be nearing Halifax by this time.

Once in the garage, the woman, an easy victim of escape, for the front of the garage was knocked out a few nights before by an automobile crashing into it. Capt. James Cooper, who headed the raid, was not very gallantly allowed the woman ten minutes in which to dress herself. When the time expired he stepped into the rear part of the house, shouting, "Will you be ready?" Receiving no response, he entered the next room only to find his bird had flown, and not having stopped to gather up her clothes, Her sister, Mabel Jones, was ordered to appear in police court Tuesday morning.

Two young men, said to be residents of New Boston, and who gave the fictitious names of Charles Osborn and William Kelley, were taken to headquarters by Officers Albrecht and Henderson, but soon after secured their release by putting up cash bonds.

Capt. Cooper camped out in the vicinity of the Baker home for the remainder of the night thinking Mrs. Baker would later return for her clothes, but was disappointed. He ended his long vigil at six o'clock Tuesday morning, making arrangements with neighbors to notify him as soon as they caught sight of Mrs. Baker. She is the wife of F. J. Baker, a painter, but they have not been living together.

The police officials claim that they have been receiving persistent complaints for some time past that there has been a steady stream of male callers to the house nightly, and that beer and whiskey were carried into the place in great quantities. There is no rear entrance way and the whole neighborhood has been aroused for weeks, but the police were never able to perfect their plans for a raid until Monday night.

John H. Arnold, of Columbus, lieutenant-governor of Ohio, did the heroic by rendering first aid to a boy injured in an automobile accident at Stockdale Sunday.

"Jack" as he wishes his friends to call him, was at the J. O. U. A. M. picnic when word reached him that a machine had crashed into a barbed-wire fence. Leaving a group of friends he hastened to the scene and took an active part in crossing the wounds of Russell Adams, a boy, who had been badly cut by the wire, and in looking after the safety and comfort of the several women of the auto party.

LIEUT. GOVERNOR GAVE "FIRST AID"

Charles Kirsch is temporarily in charge of the Banner shoe factory, while its owner, John Kountz, is laid up with blood poisoning caused by running a nail into his leg. He is now slowly improving.

CLAIMS WATER COMES FROM OLD SPRINGS

W. W. Watson, resident engineer of the J. F. Witter company, in a letter to the mayor, expresses the firm belief that complaints from the Idlewild Resort company about waste water from the filtration and coagulating plants flowing onto its land are unfounded. He says the water does not come from the basins but from old wells, or springs, on the hillside, and that it has been flowing across the road at about this point for many years. But to satisfy all parties concerned, and to make sure that the basins do not leak, Mr. Watson will make a test within the next few days.

The city service department will, with the permission of the street railway company, remove a small sewer pipe under the roadway leading to the underground crossing from Gallia place, because of complaints from the Idlewild company.

DON'T EVER WEAR A FIG LEAF

Renewed complaints were received by the police Monday about boys minus their clothes bathing in the Ohio river near the wharfbost. Officer Osborn was detailed to serve final warning on the offenders, that the next time they are caught there they will be arrested and fined.

OVER A WEEK OF PUMPING NEARLY DRAINS COFFER DAM

A few more hours of constant pumping, started a week ago, is expected to completely drain the big coffer dam at the government dam, four miles below the city.

The pumps, which were in the water a week ago, were high and dry Sunday and several big streams of water from as many big mains were slowly, but surely, diminishing the pond within the big enclosure, the steam power being supplied from a boiler boat moored alongside the dam. At one end a force of men was busy making preparations to lower a hoist engine preliminary to resuming work of excavating for the concrete path through the center of the coffer dam, and in which the wickets will be set. A layer of concrete has been spread over the top of the coffer-dam wall which is fully ten feet wide, affording an excellent promenade for visitors. The coffer dam extends to beyond the middle of the river, and once the concrete wicket path is completed the coffer-dam will be torn out and another built on the Ohio side to permit of the construction of a "bear trap." The concrete work of the lock wall is completed and is an imposing looking affair of sufficient width to permit the easy passage of the largest of Ohio river towboats, with twelve cool barges lashed two abreast. A dredge-boat is working at the upper end clearing the channel. Another is dumping tons of dirt and gravel from the bottom of the river against the coffer-dam side walls to protect them against washing. Dump-boats, concrete mixing boats, and diggers and a whole fleet of other equipment in action give the dam a very busy appearance. The Sheridan-Kirk Contract company has its own towboat and everything moves with clock-like precision. Offices, commissary, material sheds and shanties are located on the top of the high Kentucky embankment. Men engaged on the big job work every day of the week in eight hour shifts. High water and rains have delayed the work considerably, but the big undertaking is now well under way and it is certainly worth one's time to view the progress that has been made to date.

The Movies

Mary Pickford
In "The Dawn of a Tomorrow"
Columbia Today

Mary Pickford, the idolized star of the Famous Players Film company, adds another striking characterization to her notable repertoire of screen successes in Frances Hodgson Burnett's great drama of optimism, "The Dawn of a Tomorrow," the world-famous story of a young girl's unflinching faith and triumphant ultimate reward. In this celebrated play that gladdened the hearts of so many and the screen version of which will cheer as many thousands more, Mary Pickford portrays the weird and wonderful character of Glad, the beautiful and ragged girl of the London slums, whose undying optimism and heroic courage, even starvation and death, she is unable to quench. The delicacy of Miss Pickford's portrayal and the threads of forceful symbolism woven about the drama will make an unforgettable impression on the spectator. How the ignorant little slum-girl, by her beautiful faith in the mysterious Power she but vaguely comprehends, is enabled to save her lover's life from the gulf, keeps a great financier from suicide, bringing him a new hope and meaning of life, and avenges his repudiated nephew to a better manhood, are vividly told in this sublime drama of human suffering and hope that has brought to many despairing souls a new inspiration to bear the trials of today in the expectancy of tomorrow's dawn.

Be sure and see this interesting "Mary Pickford" picture at the Columbia today, and try and come this afternoon and miss the big crowd this evening, as the price of admission is 10 cents, both afternoon and

Negro Showed His Money, Footpads Helped Themselves

Charles Furistan, a strange negro, was held up and robbed of his money by two men who threw him down in the gateway of the Daniel Pawcett home on Eleventh street and rifled his pockets, Monday night about 9:30.

Thomas Evans and John Washington, negroes, are locked up at the city prison as suspects. Washington was identified as one of the two men seen to accompany Furistan up Eleventh street after friends had vainly urged him to leave his roll at a Greek ice cream parlor for the night, his fear that in his very intoxicated condition that he would lose his money.

Mrs. Pawcett was an eye-witness to the struggle in front of her home and heard Furistan exclaim, "They got every cent I had," as he regained his feet. She notified the police. Furistan at first claimed he had been "poked" for $14.75, later increasing the figure to $32, but when searched a five dollar bill was found on him.

Evans and Washington both denied robbing the other man. Washington was in police court one day last week for alleged robbing a foreigner in the N. & W. railroad car, but was dismissed for lack of evidence, though given a street gang sentence for drunkenness.

Earlier in the evening police received a hurry call to the Gallia street crossing reports having it that a stranger had been knocked in the head and robbed. Officers Cooper and Smith found the man who at first stubbornly refused to answer their questions, but when ordered "locked up" by Capt. Cooper gave his name as J. K. Jones and his home as Virginia. He said he had been way-laid and beaten "up" and $18 taken from him. His ramblings and incoherent replies caused one of the officers to accuse him of being demented. To this he replied, "Well, the judge, let me out." He finally admitted that he had not been struck by anyone or robbed. The fact that they could detect no sign of the man drinking strengthened the suspicions of the officers that he was not altogether right, and they locked him up for safe-keeping.

Help! Come Kill This 10 Ft. Snake!

"Help, brother, help! There's a snake that is ten feet long and as big around as a sappling in my house."

That was the astonishing declaration that reached Charles "Dad" Davis' ears via the telephone Monday morning, his sister Aunt Hannah Wood doing the talking from her home in New Boston.

"Dad", of course, lost no time in reaching his sister's home. But he didn't find a ten foot snake, although the reptile he did find, probably looked that long to Mrs. Wood. The reptile, which proved to be a cow-snake, was about two feet long and about as thick through as "Dad's" little finger. The snake was soon dispatched and Mrs. Wood's fears for safety allayed. The snake had crawled through an open door and there was considerable excitement in the Wood home until Mr. Davis arrived with his war club.

The report of Secretary Adolph Timm, of Philadelphia, recommending that prohibition be opposed was adopted yesterday and steps were taken by some of the 550 delegates to formulate a plan of action.
